Judy Barr Hr. 305

Judy, Judy, Judy, Judy, and one more time - Judy?? We've been so close, have done so much together, went through thick and thin; we've been fat too, but our friendship has always lasted (we might as well be married!) And this friendship will always last, because I'm going to make it so. This is going to be one of those life-long friendships, no matter how close or far we are physically. To quote Robert Browing: "What a thing friendship is — world without end!" And Thomas Fuller: "If you have one true friend, you have more than your share." I feel you are a very true friend, and I'm grateful for that. You know how I feel about the good times we've had (see my book). So I'm just going to copy down a few quotes that I feel are appropriate to us! Sophocles "He who throws away a friend is as bad as he who throws away his life"

Alexander Pope: "My friend is not perfect nor am I - so we suit each other admirably".

Jeremy Taylor: "The more we love, the better we are; and the greater our friendship are, the dearer we are to God."

Psalm 133: "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity?"

Arthur Upson: "Of our mixed life two gifts are given control; Food for the body, friendship for the soul." (continued on back white p

Dear Judy:

I still just don't know what to say. I wish I could believe it. It just seems so unfair. The summer was a great summer. We all got together. Boy do I remember when we were kids. We all used to play together. Remember the time we went on that trip to Kennywood? We were all so excited. We were all scared that dad might not let us go. But he did. I remember the ride home. We were all so tired that we fell asleep in the back seat. Boy do I remember the time we went to the pool, with Brian (we called him Bubbles) and Tommy. Remember the time we were all thinking about what we were going to do when we got older. Remember when we used to talk about what we were going to be when we grew up. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got married and had kids. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own apartment. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own house. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own car. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own boat. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own plane. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own helicopter. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own submarine. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own spaceship. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own time machine. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own invisibility cloak. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic wand. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic carpet. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic broom. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic flying saucer. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic flying carpet. Remember when we used to talk about how much fun it was going to be when we got our own magic flying

Aug. 14, 1980. I just read what I wrote five years ago. It brought back alot of memories. Now I could sit about 1001 more memories. Who would of ever thought we would end up living together in Freeport? True friends will always be friends, we have been through alot together, and will go through alot more. I love you Judy, my definition for the word friendship is "Judy". Life has gotten alot more exciting since high school. Hasn't it! Do just think what is in store for us in future years. Boy we are in for some great times!

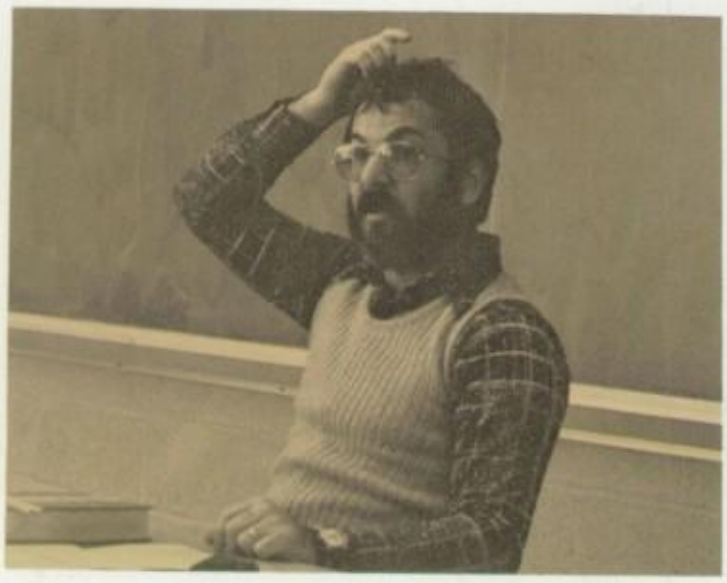
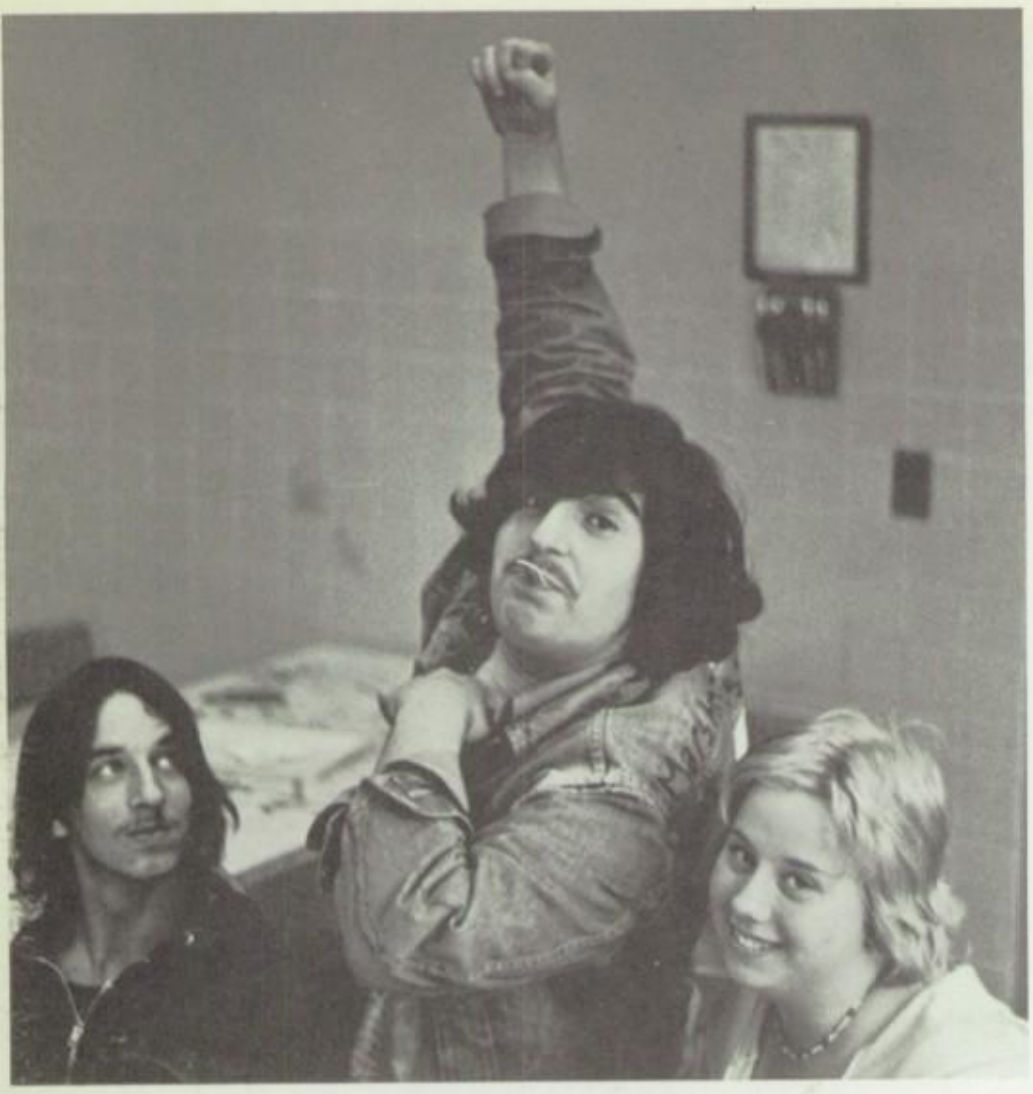
The human face, with the subtlety of the flicker of an eyelash, can convey the most complex emotion. A man may be unable to voice his feelings, yet his facial expressions communicate beyond words.





Actions often reflect a part of a man's inner self, that secret place that harbors his aspirations, and impressions of life.

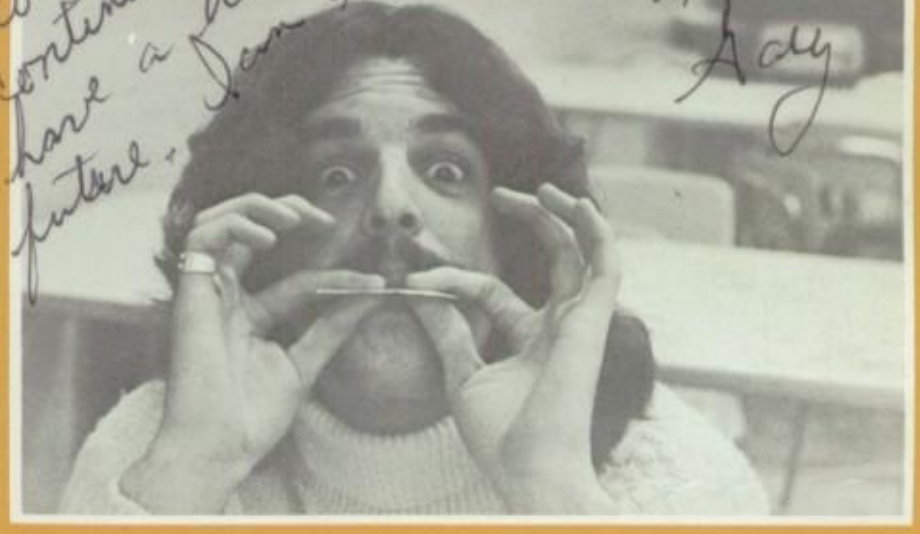
The human condition revolves around the concept of originality. Each individual creates a self-portrait, which will always remain an unduplicated masterpiece.

Dear Judy,
I've known you for a long time, and will probably continue to know you. Hope you have a healthy and successful future. I'm still pissed that you got a car
Love
Judy



Dear Judy,
I think I should start by saying I'm sorry for not having met you a golden to know before I did. Next to kinda your the greatest. I heather or not you know that the weedoge when I've been depressed and your smile and giggle cheered me up or sure helped alot. I don't ever want to lose contact with you because I feel close to you and I guess I could say I love you in a way. Judy you have a lot of talent. Talent for bringing people close to you with out trying. And in such a short time (one year) Don't ever lose that ability Judy and you'll make out all right in life. Kennedy High School is a collage of moods and attitudes. Our aim has been to gather its fragments until we have assembled . . .

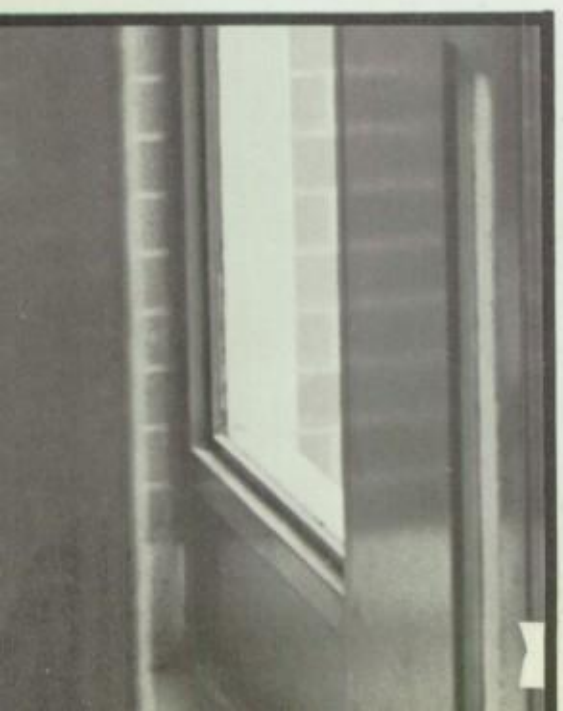
FACES '75



A VERY SPECIAL FACE

A man whose dedication for the student goes beyond 45 minutes a day . . .
A man who teaches us about life, people, and reality — not only what is in the curriculum.
A man who is so dedicated, we feel guilty about not having done the homework . . .
A man who can make us laugh even when we don't feel like it . . .
A man who we can listen to for hours because of the experiences and vast knowledge he has to share with us . . .
A man whose name is Howard Crouch . . .
To him, we dedicate Faces '75.

We've known each other since 10th grade in Girls Chorus. Now we're come all the way to Choir. (whoopee!) Good luck in everything you do. Don't forget to write to me next year. Love always, Cindy

SPECIAL FACES '75

The list of yearbook credits is impressively long. And everyone listed has participated, in one way or another, in the assembling of this book.

But the fact of the matter is that the book really is the creation of a small and stubborn group — a group that created, out of their enthusiasm and determination — and often out of the failures and inadequacies of others, the book that you hold in your hands.

If you happened to peer into Room C-164 around suppertime on any given weekday, you'd find them still there — a little bleary-eyed, a little "punchy", but still plugging away: Holly Metz, who contributed to every aspect of production, Joanna Ambrosio, Gina Caso, Jay Fishbein, Eilyse Troper, yes and Mark Fish, too. To be sure, there might be others there, depending on the section being worked on, or the nearness of the deadline. But if the love that went into this book is at all evident, remember these people as the heart of Faces '75. PJM

Faces '75 compiled the images of our past, as we become the faces of the future . . .

G. D. Prentice: "friendship is an education. It draws the friend out of himself and all that is selfish and ignoble in him and leads him to life's higher levels of altruism and sacrifice. Many a man has been saved from a life of frivolity and emptiness to a career of noble service by finding at a critical hour the right kind of friend."

Ben Jonson: "True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends, but in their worth & choice."

Walter Savage Landor: "I know not whether our names will be immortal; I am sure our friendship will."

Thomas Carlyle: "True friends, like ivy and the wall Both stand together, and together fall."

Charles LAMB: IF WORDS CAME AS READILY AS IDEAS AND IDEAS AS feeling, I COULD SAY 10 Hundred kindly THINGS. You KNOW MY SUPREME HAPPINESS AT HAVING ONE ON EARTH WHOM I CAN CALL A FRIEND."

Shakespeare: " I am not of that feather to shake off my friend when he must need me."

Thoreau: " The language of friendship is not words, but meanings. It is an intelligence above language."

Jeremy Taylor: friendship is the allay of our sorrows, the ease of our passions, the discharge of our oppressions, the sanctuary to our calamities, the

Newell D. Hillis: " friendship cheers like a sunbeam; charms like a good story; inspires like a brave leader; binds like a golden chain; guides like a heavenly vision."

H. G. Bohn: " friendships multiply joys, and divide griefs."

John Lyly: " Time draweth wrinkles on a fair face, but addeth fresh colors to a fast friend, which neither heat, nor cold, nor misery, nor place, nor destiny, can alter or diminish."

Edwart Everett Hale: " The making of friends who are real friends, is the best token we have a man's success in life."
